CABRINI PARTNERSHIP ADDS THREE BOARD MEMBERS

James Behnke, Mary Alice Smalls and Arlene Robinson join Minnesota nonprofit

February 7, 2007 (Minneapolis)—Cabrini Partnership voted James Behnke, Mary Alice Smalls and Arlene Robinson to the 19-person board of directors on January 20, 2006.

Behnke is the current chief financial officer of First Equity Mortgage located in Inver Grove Heights. He applies his background in financial affairs to assist Cabrini Partnership in making sound financial decisions.

Smalls brings education and housing management experience to Cabrini Partnership. She has worked for Partners Aiding Communities, Minneapolis Public Housing Authority and the Minneapolis Center for Neighborhoods. Her expertise is an asset during Cabrini Partnership's growth.

Robinson currently works for Coldwell Banker Burnet. Her knowledge of the real estate industry benefits Cabrini Partnership as their expansion progresses.

Each individual expressed interest in joining the Cabrini Partnership board of directors because of the organization's dedication to full-service support. Their diverse backgrounds will come together to serve Cabrini Partnership during this time of expansion.

"Cabrini Partnership has a strong mission with goals that align with my hopes for the area. I am proud to be affiliated with this nonprofit and I look forward to 2007," said Behnke.

"We're happy to have new board members. Diverse leadership will be of great value and we're excited to have James, Mary Alice and Arlene working with us," said Mary Morris, executive director of Cabrini Partnership.

The mission of Cabrini Partnership is to provide housing and services to support homeless adults with mental illness and chemical dependency to strengthen their lives, families and community. For more information, visit www.CabriniPartnership.org.
