CHARITIES REVIEW COUNCIL APPROVES CABRINI PARTNERSHIP
Minnesota nonprofit deemed quality charity

March 8, 2007 (Minneapolis)—Cabrini Partnership is proud to announce its approval by the Charities Review Council. Cabrini Partnership met all rigorous standards of the Charities Review Council under its new system of reviewing organizations.

The evaluation provides potential donors information regarding financial activity, governance, fund raising and public disclosure. The Charities Review Council examines these areas in detail to measure the quality of the charity. The compilation of this data helps identify nonprofit organizations worthy of donations.

“We’re proud the Charities Review Council approved Cabrini Partnership. The process not only provided the staff a chance to review our practices, but it also confirms we are a responsible and quality nonprofit,” said Mary Morris, executive director of Cabrini Partnership.

The mission of the Charities Review Council is to provide tools for donors to make informed giving decisions that help build a stronger nonprofit sector. For more information, visit www.SmartGivers.org.

The mission of Cabrini Partnership is to provide housing and services to support homeless adults with mental illness and chemical dependency to strengthen their lives, families and community. For more information, visit www.CabriniPartnership.org.
